These references relate to the issues discussed in this presentation.

- Easton, Stephen D.; Attacking Adverse Experts; ABA 2008;
The title is self explanatory; offers tricks and tactics for cross examination. Also there are checklists for attorneys to use in evaluating their experts or opposing experts. There are checklists for direct and cross examination. There are extensive footnotes with references of case examples.
- McCarthy, Terrance F.; McCarthy on Cross Examination; 2007.
This provides a guide for attorneys cross-examining individuals including expert witnesses. There is an extensive appendix giving examples of cross examination.
- Field, Timothy F. et al; A Resource for the Rehabilitation Consultant on the Daubert and Kumho Rulings; Elliott & Fitzpatrick, Inc, 2000
This is a good clearly written summary of the Daubert and Kumho issues as they relate to our profession. It contains the actual decision concerning exclusion of testimony made by the Supreme Court
- Field, Timothy F., and Stein, David B., Scientific vs. Non-Scientific; and Related Issues of Admissibility of Testimony by Rehabilitation Consultants; Elliott & Fitzpatrick, Inc. 2002
This provides additional information on the Daubert and Kumho rulings. There are case examples of decisions related to admission and exclusion of expert testimony.
- Babitsky, Steven & Mangraviti, James J.; Writing and Defending your Expert Report; Seak, Inc., 2002.
This book was written by two attorneys who have extensive experience with expert testimony. The book offers good suggestions and examples of reports with critiques of those reports.
- Babitsky, Steven & Mangraviti, James J.; Advanced Testifying Skills for Experts: the Master's Program; Seminar Reference Manual, 2005, Seak, Inc.
